I am writing to inform you that I have today sent a notice to the Justices' Chief Executive, under section 23A of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985, discontinuing the following charges against you.

The decision to discontinue these charges has been taken because there is not enough evidence to provide a realistic prospect of conviction.

This decision has been taken on the evidence and information provided to the Crown Prosecution Service as at the date of this letter. If more significant evidence and/or information is discovered at a later date the decision to discontinue may be reconsidered.

In rare cases a decision to discontinue may be reconsidered if a new look at the decision shows that it was clearly wrong and should not be allowed to stand.

CAUTION: This notice only applies to the charges specified in it, and does not have any effect in relation to any others that may be pending or other proceedings against you. If you are legally
