Date	8 February 2021

MAURICE KIRK	1 st Claimant Ref DJL
CHIEF CONSTABLE OF SOUTH WALES CONSTABULARY	1 st Defendant Ref APO.SWP-1-464

The trial of the above claim will take place at 10:30 AM on 6 September 2021

at

the County Court at Cardiff, Cardiff Civil Justice Centre, 2 Park Street, Cardiff, CF10 1ET

Any application in the case must be made to the court where the case is to be tried.

His Honour Judge Keyser has ordered that:

The time allowed for the trial is 10 days.

The claimant shall lodge at the court at least 10 days before the hearing an indexed bundle of documents contained in a ring binder and with each page clearly numbered.

Each party must inform the court immediately if the claim is settled whether or not it is then possible to file a draft consent order to give effect to their agreement.

Please note: This case may be released to another Judge, possibly at a different Court.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This trial / hearing is to take place as an in-person hearing. Please read the attached notice.

In order that the court adheres with social distancing, attendance at this hearing will be strictly limited to only those necessary and the court will provide attendees with a time to arrive at the court building.

Please email the court on hearings.cardiff.countycourt@justice.gov.uk no later than 1 week before the date of the hearing with the details of who will be attending so the court can respond with the relevant arrival times.

Unless the claimant does by 4.00pm on the 9 August 2021 pay to the court the trial fee of £1,090.00 or file a properly completed application (i.e one which provides all the required information in the manner requested) for

Note for fast track cases: At the end of the trial, in addition to deciding which party will pay the costs of the case, the judge will also normally assess the amount to be paid. All parties should ensure that they bring all relevant information in respect of their costs to the trial to enable the judge to carry out that assessment.

help with fees, then the claim will be struck out with effect from 9 August 2021 without further order and, unless the court orders otherwise, you will also be liable for the costs which the defendant has incurred.

(The trial fee is fee 2.1 in the current Civil Fees Order).

If your claim has been struck out, it will no longer exist. The hearing will be vacated, unless a counterclaim survives the claim being struck out.

If, following strike out of the claim the claimant or defendant wishes to start fresh proceedings a new claim must be filed together with the appropriate fee or application for help with fees.

Information and leaflets explaining more about how to pay a court fee or how to apply for a help with fees are available from the court office or online at: <https://www.gov.uk/court-fees-what-they-are>

The trial fee is non refundable. If parties settle before the trial fee is due, the trial fee will not be payable. If a consent order settling the matter is requested after the trial fee has been paid, the consent order fee will still be payable.

Please note, unless you apply for help with fees, there will be no further correspondence from the court office regarding payment of the fee or warnings as to the consequences of non payment.
